

Cultural Politics and Resistance in the 21st Century

Community-Based Social Movements and Global Change in the Americas

Edited by Kara Z. Dellacioppa
and Clare Weber

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Local Communities and Global Resistance: Social Change and Autonomy Struggles in the Americas Kara Z. Dellacioppa	1
Part I Cultural Resistance and Identity		21
2	New Political Actors in Rural Mexico: The Challenges and Achievements of Peasant and Indigenous Women Aída Hernández Castillo and Gisela Espinosa Damian	23
3	The Rebel Girls of the Other Campaign: The EZLN and Teenage Activism in Mexico City Jessica K. Taft	49
4	Zapatismo and Community-Based Social Change: Toward a Feminist Global Praxis? Melissa N. Govea	61
5	La Otra Educación: Hip-Hop, Zapatismo, and Popular Education Oscar Marquez	79
Part II Political Resistance and Identity		99
6	Maíz y País : Indigenous Mexican Struggles against Biotechnology in Agriculture Jennifer Rogers	101
7	Generating Hope, Creating Change, Searching for Community: Stories of Resistance against Globalization at the U.S.–Mexico Border Michelle Téllez	117
8	Struggles for Social Movement Autonomy in a Global Port City Clare Weber	127
9	Present in the World Economy: The Coalition of Immokalee Workers (1996–2007) André C. Drainville	145

Conclusion: Local Movements? Global Movements? Clare Weber	177
Notes on Contributors	181
Index	185