

PAPER

Migrants, Documents, and Legal Insecurity

TRAILS

EDITED BY SARAH B. HORTON AND JOSIAH HEYMAN

Duke University Press Durham and London 2020

Introduction. Paper Trails: Migrants, Bureaucratic Inscription, and Legal Recognition / 1
SARAH B. HORTON

PART I. FOUNDATIONS: CONTROLLING SPACE AND TIME / 27

1. The “People Out of Place”: State Limits on Free Mobility and the Making of Im(migrants) / 31
NANDITA SHARMA

2. And About Time Too . . . :
Migration, Documentation, and Temporalities / 53
BRIDGET ANDERSON

3. Documenting Membership:
The Divergent Politics of Migrant Driver’s Licenses in New Mexico and Arizona / 74
DORIS MARIE PROVINE AND MONICA W. VARSANYI

PART II. DOCUMENTS AS SECURITY, DOCUMENTS AS VISIBILITY / 103

4. Documented as Unauthorized / 109
DEBORAH A. BOEHM

5. Opportunities and Double Binds: Legal Craft in an Era of Uncertainty / 130
SUSAN BIBLER COUTIN

6. Document Overseers, Enhanced Enforcement, and Racialized Local Contexts: Experiences of Latino/a Immigrants in Phoenix, Arizona / 153

CECILIA MENJÍVAR

PART III. RESISTANCE AND REFUSALS / 179

7. Knowing Your Rights in Trump's America: Paper Trails of Migrant Community Empowerment / 185

RUTH GOMBERG-MUÑOZ

8. Strategies of Documentation among Kichwa Transnational Migrants / 208

JUAN THOMAS ORDÓÑEZ

Conclusion. Documents as Power / 229

JOSIAH HEYMAN

Contributors / 249

Index / 253