

Organizing Modernity

John Law

BLACKWELL
Oxford UK & Cambridge USA

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
1 Introduction	1
1 Tales of Ordering and Organizing	1
2 The Purity of Order?	4
3 Sociological Resources	9
4 The Structure of the Book: Network, Mode of Ordering and Material	18
2 Networks and Places	31
1 Networks of Writing	31
2 Networks of Agency	33
3 Networks of Research	34
4 Networks of Integrity	38
5 Places	40
6 Anxieties	43
7 Network and Process	47
3 Histories, Agents and Structures	52
1 Introduction	52
2 Evolution and Heroism	53
3 Agency Lost	57
4 Agency Regained: The Story of Cowboy-heroism	61
5 Agency Regained: Vision and Charisma	66
6 Summary	70
4 Irony, Contingency and the Mode of Ordering	73
1 Introduction	73
2 Four Modes of Ordering	75
3 The Status of the Mode of Ordering	82
4 More Stories from Ethnography	86
5 Personal Stories from Politics	89